

Enki Teaching Guides

Early Childhood

Table of Contents

The Early Childhood Teacher

The Parent: you are your child's first and forever first teacher	1
The Nursery and Preschool teacher	3
The Kindergarten Teacher	5

Early Childhood

The Young Child - body of Body	7
The Preschooler - speech of Body	10
Autonomy vs Shame and Doubt	13
The Kindergartner – mind of Body	14
The shift to Initiative vs Guilt	16

Early Childhood Goals and Priorities

19

Rhythm in the Early Childhood Program

21

Daily Rhythm	23
The Morning	25
The Afternoon	26
Sample Daily Schedules for Preschool & Kindergarten	27
Rhythm of Activities	29
Weekly Rhythms	30
Sample Weekly Schedule for Preschool & Kindergarten	32
The Month: scheduling support for the adult	33
The Year: Seasonal Harmony	35

Integrating Body, Speech, and Mind

Integrated Body for the Young Child	39
Materials and Sensory Integration	41
Nourishing Sensory Integration through Materials and Activities	43
Proprioception and Touch, working together	45

Integrated Speech for the Young Child	49
The Every-day Poison: Speaking with Forked-Tongue	51
The Language of Transitions	53
Integrated Mind in the Young Child	57
Healthy Contraction in the Young Child	60
The Activity of Learning
Nurturing the Gift of Absorption	62
The Rhythmic Balance of 3-fold Learning in the early years	64
Community: Connect vs Collect
Socialization and the Young Child	69
Isolation, Playdates, Daycare, and Preschool	73
The Kindergarten Co-op	77
Environment
The Physical Environment for the Young Child	79
Rhythm in the Indoor Environment	81
Recommended Creative Play Materials for Young Children	85
Rhythm in the Outdoor Environment	88
Unity and Diversity in the Early Childhood Years
Categorization and Intelligence	91
Recognition vs Judgment	92
Rubber to the Road: Setting Boundaries in the Early Years
The Water is Wet	95
Meeting the Moment	98
Social difficulties	101
“Aggressive” Behavior	103
Reading the Child’s Behavior – the unmet need	106
Essential Energy: Subject Areas
Movement Circle	105
Essential Energy of the Movement Circle	107
Movement in Early Childhood	108
The Developmental Mirror in Movement-Circle	111
Nurturing Engagement	114
The Unmet Need in Movement Circle	116
Sensory Integration Challenges	118
Planning and Leading a Formal Circle	123
Preparing the Material	127

Creative Play – the Jewel of Early Childhood
Essential Energy of Creative Play	131
Creative Play in Early Childhood	133
Music
Essential Energy of Music in Early Childhood	136
Music in Early Childhood	137
Humanities
Storytelling and the Integrated Curriculum	140
Humanities, the home base of Language Arts, Science, and Math in Early Childhood	144
Story: the Heart of the Enki Curriculum	147
Storytelling	150
Sample Stories for the Preschooler	153
The Kindergarten Stories	156
Snacks and Meals
Essential Energy of Mealtimes	161
Mathematics
The Heart of Mathematics in Early Childhood	165
Mathematics in Early Childhood	167
Science
The Heart of Science in Early Childhood	170
Building the Ground of Ecosystemic Living	172
Overview of Studies
Scope and Sequence in Early Childhood Subjects	175